MESSAGE FROM THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN PREMIER, DON DUNSTAN, TO THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN LAWN TENNIS ASSOCIATION.

I am very pleased to welcome to South Australia everyone concerned with the 1975 South Australian Open Lawn Tennis Championships.

I especially welcome the many competitors who have come from overseas and interstate to take part in the Championships, and I am sure the people of Adelaide will give all our visitors a warm welcome.

Adelaide is a city with many sporting facilities and sporting organisations, and one of the most popular sports is undoubtedly lawn tennis.

The number of players increase each year, and the future growth of the game is assured. Adelaide is one of the few cities in the world which can still maintain tennis facilities of sufficient standard and number to ensure that the game has broadly based popularity.

I am sure the South Australian Championships will be a further boost to the game in this State.

The matches to be played in the next few days will please both spectators and players.

I congratulate the South Australian Lawn Tennis Association for the organisation of this tournament.
