PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

Channel Nine Report.

The Premier, Mr. Dunstan, will make a special report on progress in industrial development to South Australians on Channel Nine tonight (Sunday) at 6.30.

In the programme Mr. Dunstan answers questions on State Government action in the development field from T.V. and stage star Bobby Limb.

Mr. Limb, a former South Australian, is in Adelaide for the musical "No, No Nanette".

The Premier said today the programme was the first of a four-part series under the general heading "South Australia 1973" outlining State Government action in such areas as education, health services, conservation and environmental protection.

"Our aim is to show people something of what has been done over the past 32 months in this pre-election period so that South Australians will be better informed of the issues when they come to decide ~~who~~ who should form the next administration". Mr. Dunstan said.
