MOTEL EXPANSION.

An important motel expansion involving expenditure of $400,000 was announced by the Premier, Mr. Dunstan, today. The Hilton Motel Group, which for the past three years has operated a motel of 42 rooms at 176, Greenhill Road, Parkside, and also a motel of 30 rooms at Port Lincoln, will expand its Greenhill Road site.

The building contract has been let to the Adelaide firm of B.F. Marshall & Sons Pty. Ltd. The contract covers the first stage of building an additional twelve luxury international standard suites. A further twelve similar suites will follow later and be the subject of a further contract.

Mr. Dunstan said that the new suites would provide the latest in facilities in motel accommodation and they had been planned after research into all details of the best overseas accommodation.

This project was not only important for the immediate employment it would provide in the building industry - it was an important addition to the attraction of tourists to South Australia and would help to meet the growing demand for accommodation in this State. It was anticipated that the first twelve suites would be completed for the first week in September when many visitors would be in Adelaide for the Royal Show.
