STATEMENT : 12TH AUGUST, 1967.

BY THE HON. THE PREMIER, MR. D.A. DUNSTAN, Q.C., M.P.

The decision of the River Murray Commission is a bitter blow for South Australia. It's apparent that the parochial views of other States have led them to disregard the needs of the lower areas of the Murray.

When this is combined with the existent disregard for the people of South Australia occasioned by the channeling of saline waters into South Australia from other States, we in South Australia have been given an extremely rough deal. The Government does not intend to take this lying down. We'll fight this with every means at our disposal. This is iniquitous.
