PRESS RELEASE FOR "BURNSIDE NEWS REVIEW."

GOVERNMENT GRANT TO ELDERLY CITIZENS.

The Beulah Park Elderly Citizens Club will benefit from a $2,266 grant made by the Government. Extensions will be made to the clubroom on the land abutting Magill Road and Howard and Brand Streets.

This is the first subsidy granted to this Senior Citizens' Club.

The Premier (Mr. Don Dunstan), in his capacity as Treasurer, has written to the Burnside Corporation and to Mr. C.E. Southcott, Secretary of the Club, to advise them of the subsidy which represents half of the total cost of the extension work.

The extensions to the existing main room will provide satisfactory accommodation for the Club's activities and will add materially to the comfort and enjoyment of members.
