PRESS RELEASE FROM COMMUNITY WELFARE MINISTER, MR. KING.

MURRAY BRIDGE SOCIAL WORKERS.

18.7.72

Two more social workers are being sought by the Community Welfare Department at Murray Bridge, the Community Welfare Minister, Mr. King, said today.

This is part of the expansion of the Department's services in country areas and the extension of operations under the new Community Welfare Act.

The posts have been advertised in the Murray Bridge press to encourage anyone living in the area who has social work qualifications to consider taking up the job.

The Department has recently based both regional and district headquarters at Murray Bridge, staffed by four people servicing an area from Strathalbyn to Bordertown.

Mr. King said the new social workers were needed to increase the Department's counselling and support services for families in difficulty and need.

They would also provide services for residents at the Point McLeay Aboriginal Mission.
