PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

WOOLWORTHS $5 MILLION SPENDING IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

6.2.73

Woolworths are to spend $5 million on South Australian developments this year, the Premier, Mr. Dunstan, announced today.

Salisbury, Highbury, and Gilles Plains will have major Woolworths Stores supported by specialty shops, and parking. Extensions to existing stores both at Mitcham and Blackwood are also planned.

Woolworths' State Manager and Director, Mr. R.L. Clifford, said the developments would stimulate economic conditions and create further employment opportunities within the State.

Drawings were in hand for submission to the respective Councils, and Woolworths' objective will be to complete the developments before the end of the year.

Two new stores recently opened at Christies Beach and Frewville indicate Woolworths' confidence in South Australia, and further developments are expected to be announced shortly, Mr. Clifford said.
