PUBLIC NOTICE

The purchase of motor spirit and automotive diesel oil within the metropolitan planning area industries has been restricted to persons and industry of an essential nature. This is defined as:-

- Medical practitioners nominated by the A.M.A.
- Wholesale meat suppliers
- Wholesale suppliers of perishable foods
- Milk vendors

Private individuals who consider they are within the above categories should apply in person to the permit office located on the ground floor of the State Administrative Centre, Victoria Square. This office will be open from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Sunday, 30th July, and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on week days.

Emergency supplies will be made to enable the following to continue in operation:-

- ← Public transport
- Police
- Hospitals
- Ambulances
- Fire Brigade
- Bread manufacturers
- Milk processing plants

In these cases motor spirit will be obtained through the bulk supplies held by the organisation concerned.

No permits will be issued to individual employees in those industries unless the employer does not have a bulk supply and authorises it is essential for an employee to be at work before public transport commences in the morning and finishes in the evening. In those cases the permit will be limited to 10 gallons.

Where a person is issued with a permit it applies only to the vehicle concerned and for the purpose designated. The permit in some instances will specify a particular gallonage or apply for a limited period.

With limited supplies only remaining, newspaper and, in some cases, bread supplies, will only be available at local shopping centres.

Public are urged to use public transport. It is proposed this will continue to operate at normal levels for as long as practicable.
