PRESS RELEASE FROM THE ACTING PREMIER, MR CORCORAN.

13.12.73

The South Australian Performing Arts Centre for Young People has been granted an extension of its occupancy of Carclew until the end of 1977.

The Acting Premier, Mr Corcoran, said the Adelaide City Council had agreed to the extension following representations from the State Government.

The Government has spent $20,000 on external repairs to Carclew including painting in the original colours.

Mr Corcoran said this work would be completed before next year's Festival of Arts.

The South Australian Performing Arts Centre for Young People would carry out internal painting.
