PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

TOBACCO TAX.

2.12.74

The Premier, Mr. Dunstan, said today he expected the price of tobacco products to the public in South Australia to be increased from January 1, 1975. This followed the passage of legislation by State Parliament last week.

Mr. Dunstan added : "The Government is concerned that resellers of tobacco products may attempt to stockpile before January in expectation of the increase.

"The Government will be watching this situation closely and if excessive stockpiling occurs will take immediate action to place these products under the control of the Commissioner of Prices and Consumer Affairs".
