PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

BANKING ENQUIRY.

14.1.75

The Chairman of Development Finance Corporation, Sir John Marks, and the firm of W.D. Scott and Co Ltd., management consultants, have been invited to examine the charter and operations of both the State Bank and the Savings Bank to see whether an expansion of their services is practicable. This was announced today by the Premier and Treasurer, Mr. Dunstan.

Sir John Marks was a distinguished merchant banker whose knowledge of the banking industry was held in the highest regard both within Australia and overseas.

W.D. Scott and Co Pty Ltd., have for many years been involved in giving advice on reorganisation of major banks including Barclays Bank Ltd., The Chartered Bank, The Royal Bank of Scotland Ltd., De Nederlandsche Bank, Nederland N.V., Kas-Associatie, Nederland N.V and Nederlandsche Middenstandsbank, Nederland N.V.

The Premier said the State Bank and the Savings Bank gave excellent service to South Australia and played a prominent part in its development.

He hoped the investigation would lead to further improvements in their operations.
