NEW SHOPPING COMPLEX.

A new $3½ million shopping centre and cinema complex for the Elizabeth Town Centre was announced today by the Premier, Mr. Dunstan.

Mr. Dunstan said that successful negotiations between the South Australian Housing Trust, Woolworths (South Aust) Ltd., and Greater Union Theatres would mean the building of a 5,760 square metre Discount Department Store and a Twin Cinema Complex. The Premier said that on completion the store and theatres would provide employment for up to 140 people including many females.

In addition to this work, the Premier said, the presently planned programme would include further office accommodation, speciality shops and community facilities.

At the end of Prince Charles Walk a large Plaza and sunken garden will provide the major link between the four major elements. The Plaza will provide a venue for outdoor sculpture.

The Premier said this further major extension of the Elizabeth Town Centre was urgently required to service Elizabeth and the surrounding district. The project would also be a major boost to the building industry.
