POLICE FORCE SUPERANNUATION BENEFITS.

Legislation is to be introduced to provide substantial improvements in superannuation benefits for members of the South Australian Police Force.

Cabinet approval for the drafting of amendments to the Police Pensions Act was announced today by the Premier, Mr. Dunstan.

He said that the amendments would bring Police pensions broadly into line with the superannuation benefits available to members of the Public Service and other Government employees.

There would also be an adjustment to existing pensions.

Mr. Dunstan said that the proposed changes had been discussed with the Police Association and they were supported by the Association.
