An Act to amend "The Fisheries Act."

[Assented to, October 23rd, 1889.]

Be it Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. It shall be unlawful for any person to use, for the purpose of catching or taking fish, any net or fixed engine, except hand-crab nets, within a radius of one hundred yards of any jetty or pier which may be proclaimed by the Governor under this Act; and any person offending against, or assisting any person offending against, this section shall, for every such offence, be liable on conviction to a penalty of not less than Ten Shillings nor more than Twenty Pounds, and the net or fixed engine shall be forfeited to the Commissioner.

2. This Act shall be incorporated and read as one with "The Incorporation. Fisheries Act."

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

KINTORE, Governor.
