No. 425.

An Act to facilitate the making of By-laws by Public Bodies.

[Assented to, September 19th, 1888.]

BE it Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in the present Parliament assembled, as follows, that is to say:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the "By-laws Enabling Act, 1888."

2. In the construction of this Act the words "by-laws" shall include all by-laws, laws, rules, and regulations which any public body shall have power to make, and the words "public body" shall include every Corporation, Council, Board, body, person, or authority, having power to make by-laws.

3. Whenever by any Act power is conferred on any public body to make by-laws, the publication whereof is required in any way, it shall be lawful for the Governor by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette to make, alter, or repeal any model by-laws, dealing with all or any of the subjects on which such public body shall have such power as aforesaid.

4. After publication of any such model by-laws as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any such public body, in the manner prescribed for the making of by-laws, to adopt either in whole or in part all or any of such model by-laws, by reference thereto in any manner sufficient cient to identify the same with any modifications which may be thought desirable, and publication of notice of such adoption shall be sufficient compliance with any law relating to the publication of such by-laws, and all laws relating to the proof of by-laws, and their reception in evidence shall extend to the proof of the by-laws so adopted, and the reception in evidence of the Gazette containing a copy thereof, on proof of the notice of adoption in manner prescribed, or permitted for the proof of by-laws: Provided that it shall be lawful for any such public body to alter or repeal any such model by-law after adopting it.

5. No alteration or repeal of any model by-laws shall affect any prior adoption thereof by any public body.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. C. F. ROBINSON, Governor.
