The Flinders Journal of History and Politics

Volume 31

2015

Editorial Board 2015: Ella Stewart-Peters, Tets Kimura, Peter Montearth, Kieran Mortimer-Murphy, Anita Stelmach

About FJHP: Established in 1969, FJHP is Australia's oldest postgraduate journal of History and Politics.

Its editorial board is pleased to consider manuscripts dealing with political, modern historical, economic, philosophical and social issues. It is a condition of submission that contents are original and have not been previously published elsewhere or are under consideration in another publication. Until the editorial board has conveyed a decision to the author regarding inclusion or otherwise in the journal, a submission's publishing rights are held by the journal.

Items for the 'Forum' section of the journal should address topical issues with the aim of provoking debate. Pieces published here should be in the range of 1000 to 3000 words; they need not contain a scholarly apparatus. Publication in this section is not subject to peer review and is at the discretion of the editors. Contentious or radical positions are encouraged.

Manuscripts submitted for the 'Articles' section should be in the range of 3000 – 8000 words. All articles appearing in this section are peer reviewed by independent academic referees. Book reviews submitted for the 'Reviews' section should be 500 – 1000 words in length. The editors will consider unsolicited reviews. Review articles of greater length will also be considered.

Submissions: Submissions should be sent to: fjhp@flinders.edu.au.
