ANNO QUADRAGESIMO QUARTO ET QUADRAGESIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1881.

An Act to amend Act No. 194 of 1880.

[Assented to, November 18th, 1881.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend Act No. 194 of 1880, and to further promote the cultivation of sugarcane and other tropical products, and to enable lands selected or to be selected under the said Act, in the Northern Territory, to be worked in large blocks—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. If any person or company shall become entitled by transfer, assignment, or otherwise, under more than one contract, to two or more sections or blocks of land, the conditions as to shape, occupation, cultivation, amount to be expended, and quantity of products to be obtained from the said sections or blocks shall be deemed to apply to such sections or blocks of land as a whole in the same manner as if all of such sections or blocks had been lawfully selected and held under one contract. Provided that no such amalgamation shall be permitted unless such sections are contiguous and shall not exceed twenty thousand acres.

2. This Act, and the Act No. 194 of 1880, intituled "An Act to encourage the settlement of that part of the Province of South Australia known as the Northern Territory, and to provide for the cultivation of sugarcane and other tropical products therein," shall be incorporated, and be read and construed together, as forming one Act.

3. The
Northern Territory Settlement Act Amendment Act—1881.

3. The provisions of Act No. 194 of 1880, and of this Act, shall also apply to such part of the land known as Cox's Peninsula as shall not be less than ten miles distant from Palmerston.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.
