An Act to further amend “The Taxation Act, 1884.”

[Assented to, December 17th, 1892.]

Be it enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said province, in this present Parliament assembled, as follows, that is to say:

1. This Act may be cited as “The Taxation Act Amendment Act, 1892,” and shall be incorporated and read with “The Taxation Act, 1884.”

2. In addition to the income tax imposed and payable under and by virtue of “The Taxation Act, 1884,” a further tax is hereby imposed upon the taxable amount of such income arising or accruing in or derived from South Australia during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, at the following rates—

   I. On all income derived during the said year, from personal exertion, One Penny and one Half-penny for every Pound sterling of the taxable amount thereof:

   II. On all income derived during the said year, the produce of property, at the rate of Threepence for every Pound sterling of the taxable amount thereof.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

KINTORE, Governor.
